

AgriSafe extends a warm welcome to the Agricultural Health and Safety Network (ASH-NET), which now serves as the state AgriSafe affiliate for Illinois. ASH-NET is an outgrowth of the W.G. Kellogg Foundation Ag Safety and Health Cluster of projects beginning in 1992. ASH-NET is well positioned to serve as the State AgriSafe Affiliate because of the partnerships with health professionals, researchers, and various rural health leaders throughout the state.